

Darwin: Darwin takes a world and the number of turns that need to be taken.

World: A World takes a series of Species and a height and width.

Creature: Takes a species, and stores it.

Species: Takes a name and a series of instructions for said name.